JULES VERNE, Whitbread Horse Trials, 1969

Bernard McHardy

Bernard was a very influential man in the competitive horse world. He competed in all disciplines, mainly jumping but Eventing was his favourite. He was a very successful business man, and in most opinions, the best Chairman THS ever had.

He was good at getting the best out of everyone, but also took no nonsense, and ran his committees – and more importantly AGMs - with a rod of iron.

In particular, he was responsible for the purchase of the South African National Equestrian Centre, today's KEP, and had it not been for his quick thinking and influence, the sale would not have gone through.

Bernard sadly passed on last month after a long courageous fight with illness. He was a charming man with a wonderful sense of humour, and a great family man.

The McHardy family own the Rathmore Stud and amongst others, are producing some fine event horses.
