

EQUESTRIAN STRUCTURE

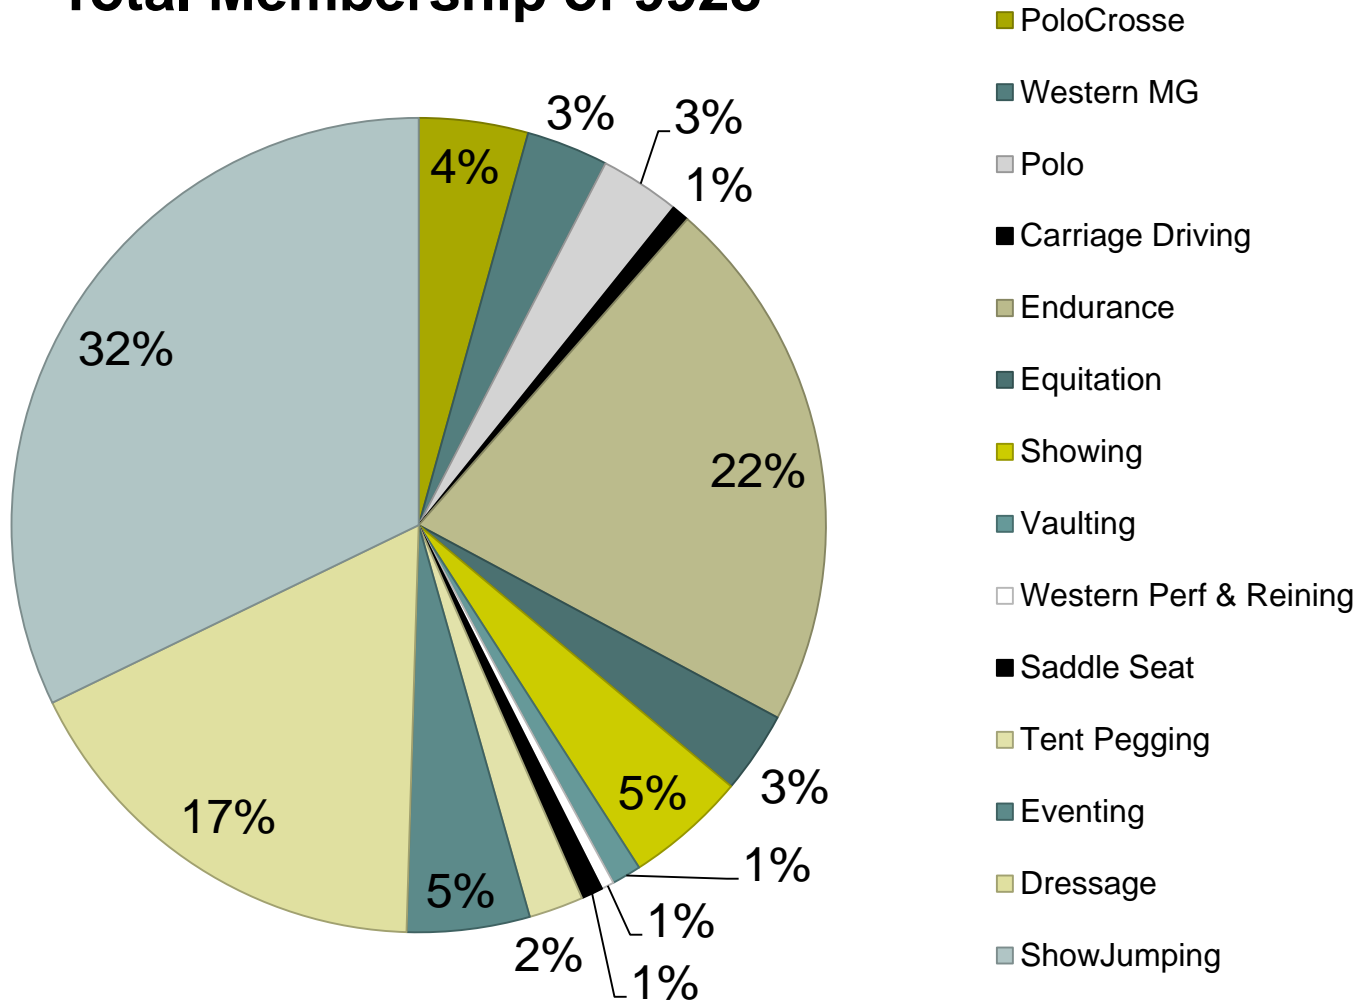

Current Disciplines

Current DA Membership

Total Membership of 9928

What Constitutes a Discipline

- Legal body with a constitution.
- Represented in at least four provinces.
- Annual Audited Financials.
- Free and Fair voting structure.
- Practice corporate governance.
- Constitution to be approved by National Equestrian Federation.

National Equestrian Federation

- MEMBERSHIP
 - Ordinary Members
 - Shall be National Associations represented in each of the 14 disciplines.
 - Each discipline to be properly constituted
 - Associate Members
 - Sanesa
 - Other members who may comply with the provisions of associate membership in terms of National Equestrian Federation constitution.
 - Athlete's Representation
 - One representative from the ordinary membership of FEI disciplines
 - One representative from the ordinary membership of Non FEI disciplines.

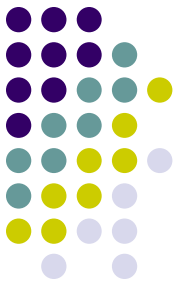

Elections and Voting

- The Executive of the Federation shall be elected in terms of the constitution from the membership who qualify and whose nominations is properly constituted.
- Proposed voting for the election of the executive shall be as follows:
 - Ordinary members 1 vote per discipline
 - Associate members 1 vote per Associate
 - FEI Athletes Representation 2 votes
 - Non FEI Athletes Representation 2 votes

National Executive

- President to be voted for by all of the memberships.
- FEI Vice President to be voted by FEI ordinary members.
- Non FEI Vice President to be voted by NON FEI ordinary members.
- Treasurer to be voted for by all of the memberships.
- The Secretary General who may be elected or employed and shall have no vote.
- President of National Federation can not also be President of a respective DA.

Funding and Affiliation

Individual member only affiliates to
Provincial DA
directly or via a club

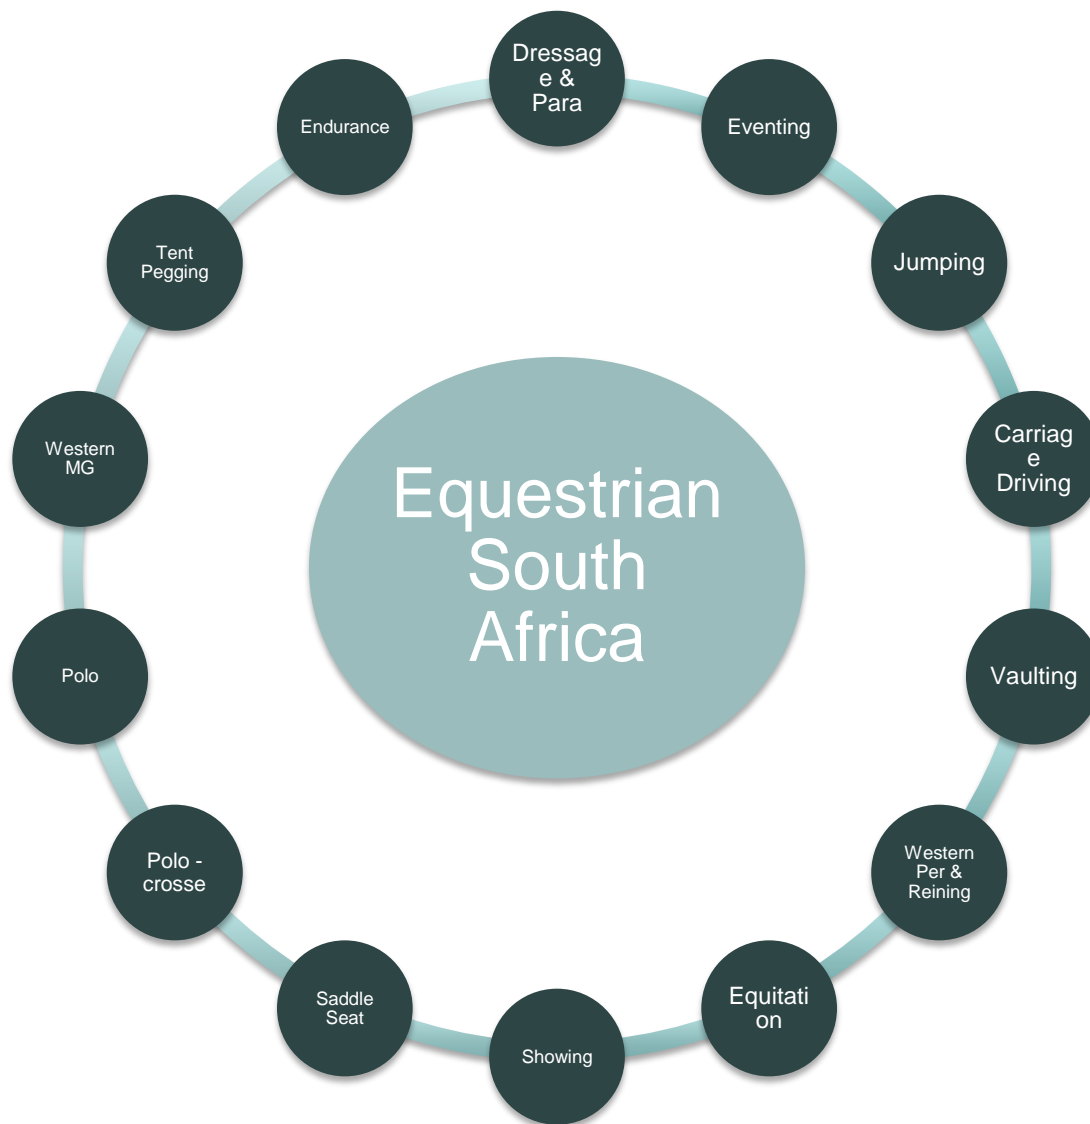

Provincial DA
affiliates to National DA

National DA to affiliate to National Equestrian Federation based on pro-rata membership

- All members of all disciplines are affiliated to National Equestrian Federation, ensuring financial sustainability

Equestrian South Africa

Provincial Equestrian Federation

- In each of the nine geopolitical provinces, the chairs of the DA's provincial member will coordinate a Provincial Equestrian Federation, (PEF) which will in turn affiliate to the Provincial Sports Confederation.

Advantages to proposed structures

- All 14 DA's are separate legal entities with membership to National Equestrian Federation (NEF), having representation and a vote on NEF council.
- Each DA runs their own sport, under the umbrella body NEF, who in turn is the only liaison for Equestrian sport with SASCO.
- There is no Duplication of provincial bodies and costs.
- SANESA to operate under the DA rules and regulations.
- All members of all DA's are affiliated to NEF, ensuring financial sustainability.
- All individual members have a voice on the NEF council via their DA, who has their best interest in mind.
- Smaller disciplines will not be lost in the system, as they will have a vote at the NEF council.